

1/10/12 NANA General Meeting Minutes
Police Update- Kandice Roper-Issa
Copper theft and auto break-ins were the most prevalent crimes in 2011. Follow-up on previous items: unclear what trash is an issue on Asmann, Kroger Mansion Back door is secure, uncertain which car on N. Fred Shuttlesworth is abandoned, currently no further action can be done at the present moment for 946 Marion other than continuing to register complaints: call 569-8654. There was a recent shooting at Burton, but not done by residents.
City Budget Training- Lea Eriksen
Lengthy presentation and discussion- Although not posted yet, the newest 2012 presentation that was presented tonight will be found on the NANA Website on the Minutes page and the City website: http://www.cincinnati-oh.gov/cmgr/pages/-12848/
Nominating Committee- Bill Stevens
Request for members to serve on nominating committee.
NA Recreation Center- Dina Hanks
Dina requests survey to be completed to help design what activities should be occurring at recreation center.
Motion to approve Maura Wolf has head of committee of NSP
Charlene motioned, John Jones approved, unanimous vote affirmed
Upcoming Valentines Day General Meeting to have refreshments
Old Business
What is going on with neighborhood watch formation? No news from Carolyn Gillman.	Board to contact Carolyn to find out what is going on.
Zach from Xavier's Committee on Community Affairs announced Xavier-Neighbor dinner on Feb 13 th @ 5pm at Gallagher Student Center. Norwood and Evanstan also invited. Is hosted by Center of Faith and Justice. Vegetarian food.
Janet Banks moved to close, John Jones seconded all approved.	