

December NANA General Meeting Minutes

Interim Chief Eliot Isaac

7:20 p.m.

Interested in addressing violent crime. Mark Manning is the City Solicitor who is working to reduce the problems.

Want to focus on community outreach (working with youth and other comprehensive activities)

Technology is another area of concern for the department. Wants to create a healthy police department.

Q: Are we prepared for a San Bernadino-like tragedy?

New recruiting class begins January.

A: We are prepared to handle that; officers are trained.

Nuisance Law: attorney makes the determination as to whether or not to pursue

Barry Whitton:

5 Point Plan

Analysis based upon Crime Stats over a 3-year period

Police district command

115-120 street cameras in 18 of 53 neighborhoods

20 miles of OH river (partnered with FEMA)

Banks

Future partnerships with other entities (Xavier, GABP)

24/7 cameras that move, have climate control. Info is held for 14 days; can preserve longer.

Proactive, live viewing capability. Reactive as well; can look back at other

Cameras can be mobile; looking at interactive mapping.

Current cameras are located:

Gholson/Reading

Clinton Springs/Reading

3700 Reading

Paddock/Reading

Barry.whitton@cincinnati-oh.gov

To sponsor a flowerpot is $200/year

North Avondale won $500 for spring cleanup (1st place)