

Christmas in July Sugar Cookie Decorating Session

Description

Deck the palms with boughs of frosting! Santa's taking a summer vacation, and so should you at Cookie Class! Join me on July 19th in Cincinnati, OH, for a Christmas in July sugar cookie decorating session—get stoked for the ho-ho-holidays!

Interested in learning more about decorated sugar cookies? Tink's Sweet Shoppe is here to help! In this 1.5-hour class, we'll cover the basics to sugar cookies (so yes, it's beginner friendly!), do some piping practice with Royal Icing, talk about how to strategize the best ways to decorate sugar cookies, and cover the general concepts around dough and icing! Everything you'll need is provided in class along with a live in-person instructor—just bring a smile (and maybe an apron).

Beat the heat with some sweet treats in this 1.5-hour cookie decorating class! Don't miss out on this fun 6-cookie, 4-icing class—Christmas magic isn't just for December, let's deck the cookies in July splendor!

This class is good for ages 8+ but if you'd like to bring a child younger, that's perfectly okay as long as they have the dexterity to hold the tools and can follow along for the basics. For the kiddos at home, you can purchase an add-on kit (more information in the link below)! The kits are great for kids at home, plus, I'll send you the class PowerPoint so you can teach them yourself!
