

Cincinnati Festival of Faiths

Description

On Sunday, Aug. 27, Xavier University's Cintas Center hosted Cincinnati Festival of Faiths with entertaining and meaningful programming that was free and open to the public. More than 30 faith organizations representing thirteen world religions participated in the festival presented by EquaSion featuring exhibitors, vendors, food, and entertainment for all ages.

This year's festival theme was Compassion Through Action: Dwelling Together in Peace and Justice with honorary co-chairs Shakila T. Ahmad, Archbishop Dennis M. Schnurr, Acharya Kailash Sharma, and Rabbi Gary P. Zola, Ph.D.

Learn more about the event: <https://equasion.org/>

There are multiple videos about conversations that happened during the event available for viewing at EquaSion's Facebook page.

Date Created

September 10, 2023

Author

northavondale