

Dancing Grandmas is looking for new tap dancing members

Description

default watermark

Dancing Grandmas on Tap is a group of local seniors who perform at retirement communities and community events. The group was founded by the legendary Harris Rosedale in 1982. From ages 63 to 80, Dancing Grandma dancers enjoy performing for a variety of audiences.

Right now, they are looking for dancers who have at least one year of tap dance under their belt to join their ranks.

Check out Dancing Grandmas on Tap website for more info.

Submitted by Director Shelley Dumoulin
4039 Rose Hill Ave.

Date Created
May 2, 2023
Author
northavondale