One of the Cincinnati Fire Department's goals is to fill each position with a well-qualified individual, both interested in the job and committed to a career in that field. To do this, CFD provides each applicant with a realistic description of the job and its tasks, which may include:

- Rescue and care of victims
- Fire prevention
- Hazardous materials containment
- Community service

Cincinnati Fire Department urges anyone who is interested to consider the entire job of a firefighter. Good customer service skills and continuing education are also required.

To apply, an individual must be 17 years of age and 18 by the appointment date, hold a high school diploma or GED and possess a valid driver's license. Learn more about requirements here.
