

Piano Lessons with James Hart

Description

James Hart, retired Xavier University music professor, is accepting new piano students in his North Avondale teaching studio as of July, 2025.

I teach all levels, from beginner to advanced, and all ages from 5 years to adults. Summer is a great time to start piano lessons, so contact me soon because time slots might fill up quickly. I can accommodate people's summer holiday plans. Start with a first free lesson (30 minutes) to see if we are a good fit!
