
Villa Dincolo

Description

Since we last checked in with Michael in midsummer, the owner of Villa Dincolo, which was the original Herschede Mansion, a lot has taken place. Villa Dincolo is a place like no other. It was a place that stood out from its birth with the most modern amenities that time period offered, and it still is a place that has retained almost all of its historic and charming characteristics. Michael has enthusiastically looked in our great state of Ohio and other near by states like Indiana and Illinois to expand his operations and acquire another opulent Estate to bring together creatives, ingÃ©nues, and talented minds together under one roof or in this case multiple roofs. In fact Michael is also managing a waterside Estate and is now in talks for offering some commercial spaces for photography and videography.

Villa Dincolo has gone through a re-asphalting process this past summer and since then has been the ceremonial backdrop to multiple weddings and one wedding magazine as well as the place where new up-and- coming artists choose to have their music videos or models choose to create content to expand their portfolios. If you or someone you know is interested in event hosting or the entertainment business, Villa Dincolo is the place to be and Michael is very eager to talk to you. Give him a call at (917) 436-0929 or email him at BeyondEnterprise@outlook.com.
