Founded in 1961

“The Future of North Avondale” will be discussed at the first annual meeting NANA (North Avondale Neighborhoods Association) Tuesday, May 9 at 8 p.m. in North Avondale School. The program will consist of a panel moderated by Charles Messer and election of officers.

Panel participants will be Father David McCarthy, Xavier University; George Redfern, assistant superintendent of public schools; and former Vice Mayor, Theodore M. Berry. Arrangements for the meeting are being made by John Goldman, assisted by Dr. Murray Tieger and Wynn Newman.

Nominees presented by the nominating committee are Carl Gutman, chairman; Dr. Louis Brown, first vice chairman; Robert Levy, second vice chairman; Mrs. Riley Matthews, secretary; A. Edgar Aub, Jr., treasurer. - May 4, 1961

Boundaries

- The neighborhood association was formed by parents at the North Avondale Elementary School to stop the large homes from being broken up into multi family and the further deterioration of the zoning code. The boundaries were the same boundaries used for eligibility for the school.

Seasongood

Volunteers who helped at the North Avondale public space on Clinton Springs with labor and/or donations: Deborah and Roger Anderson, Lou and Deborah Ginocchio, Bob and Marian Pitcairn, Dotty Shaffer and Richard and Vanessa Wayne. Rob MacGregor and Lisa Rose from New World Landscaping donated their labor and their truck to haul in the tons of stones and boulders. They did not put plants in because it is almost impossible to water.
