

Environment: October 2022

Description

Our popular Household Hazardous Products Drop-off Event is back and bigger than ever. This years event has been expanded to two days: Friday, October 21 and Saturday, October 22 at a new westside location. Learn more by visiting <https://hamiltoncountyr3source.org/297/Household-Hazardous-Products> and register today!

HAMILTON COUNTY, OH

HOUSEHOLD HAZARDOUS PRODUCTS

TWO DAY DROP-OFF

Friday

Oct. 21, 2022
10A - 3:30P

Saturday

Oct. 22, 2022
8A - 12P

Space is limited
register to reserve

Fall Leaves

Sec. 723-33. – Sweeping onto Sidewalk or Roadway.

No person shall shovel, sweep, throw or otherwise deposit snow or ice from private property onto a sidewalk or roadway located within the public right-of-way.

No person shall sweep, throw or otherwise deposit leaves, sweepings, litter or other matter from private property onto a sidewalk or from a sidewalk onto a roadway or into the gutter thereof, nor shall any person ignite or burn such materials on a street pavement, or cause such to be done.

default watermark

default watermark

Raking leaves destroys Butterflies, squirrels, some other animals depend on or protection. Furthermore up root systems, suppress soil moisture and act as

default watermark

Don't throw away pumpkin Halloween. Find woods or you, smash them open and the wildlife to eat. Pumpkin them and the seeds act as a dewormer. (Army of the

Date Created

October 1, 2022

Author

northavondale

default watermark